Description

A fine oil on canvas painting titled: Cottage at Whittington, nr Worcester by W Swindell. The painting is a superb example of a cottage scene with the work on the building being particularly good, the foreshortening of the structure is perfect. The scene is enchanting with fine detail in the garden, and a child playing with a boat in the pond, as his mother and dog look on watchfully. The work is in excellent untouched condition and is signed to the lower centre W.Swindell and dated 1885. The artist W.Swindell is an enigma, he was obviously a very capable landscape artist but there is no record of him, this is most likely that either he was a talented amateur or purely a commercial artist, did not exhibit and was therefore not recorded in the way artists usually are. The painting is mounted in what is likely the original frame which is in good untouched condition, it is older than the painting and was probably reused for this work. The whole is a great Victorian cottage painting and as good an example as you will see. Overall sizes in inches including frame: 20 by 16
