Description

Two interesting and unusual early Staffordshire figures. One figure is a small example of a square based type which shows a reclining woman possibly representing flowers or spring. The second figure shows a gardener standing with a spade, unusually for this type it is treacle glazed. The two figures are both in good condition with just a couple of chips to the underside of the base of the female figure. Two lovely examples of early Staffordshire figures that have a great period decorative appeal. C.1800 Gardener: 1 ¾ wide, 1 ¾ deep. 4 ½ high Floral figure: 3 wide, 1 ¾ deep. 3 ½ high
