Description

This came from a large house in Yorkshire and is a rare object. A lovely golden colour, it is panelled to either side and has its original bevelled mirror and turned knobs. The single drawer to the base is mahogany lined and all the backboards are original. The cornice can be removed but the rest of the robe is in one piece. Please make sure you can get this through your doors. Measurements in detail are given in the photographs. Internal hanging height 130 cm.
