Description

Behold the elegance of a bygone era with this finely moulded Victorian giltwood wall mirror. Crafted in the late 19th century, this mirror is a testament to the grandeur of Victorian design. The gilded frame, boasts intricate mouldings that capture the light and dazzle the eye of all who pass by. At its pinnacle, an ornate ribbon-tied bow cresting adds a touch of whimsy and charm, reminiscent of the period's love for elaborate decoration. The mirror itself is a piece of history, retaining its original glass plate that has aged gracefully. The slight distressing of the mirror surface adds character and tells a story of its past, reflecting not just the viewer but also a rich history that has been preserved over time. This mirror is more than a decorative piece; it is a relic that brings the essence of the Victorian age into the present day, making it a perfect addition to any space that values classic beauty and enduring craftsmanship. Whether gracing the walls of a traditional drawing room or adding a historical touch to a modern living space, this giltwood wall mirror is sure to captivate and inspire.
