Description

This charming small French wall mirror exudes a sense of antique elegance and charm. The frame, finished in its original aged grey paint, showcases the passage of time with grace, while the attractive gilded details add a touch of opulence. The mirror plate itself tells a story, with its surface aged and distressed uniformly, creating a delightful and enchanting effect that captivates the viewer. Dating back to circa 1830, this mirror is not only a reflective piece but also a fragment of history. The provenance of this mirror is as notable as its beauty, having been sourced directly from a Celebrity Sports Personality. This connection adds an intriguing layer of prestige and conversation to the piece, making it a remarkable find for collectors and enthusiasts of both historical artifacts and sports memorabilia. Whether displayed in a cozy corner or serving as a focal point in a room, this small French wall mirror is sure to bring a touch of French sophistication and a whisper of storied past into any space.
