Description

A 19th Century French pine marriage armoire in Louis XV style, the moulded cornice over a pair of foliate carved and panelled doors centred by a basket of flowers, raised on shaped feet with a carved apron, the interior later fitted with shelves to the left hand side and hanging rail on the right - this could easily be removed and shelves re-instated. In very good condition overall. It does not break down other than the cornice and doors are removable.
