Description

A superb chunky piece of crystal has been used to create this very stylish inkwell, clearly Art Deco with it's superb clean lines; all the rage right now fitting into to either a contemporary or traditional interior. The crystal is topped with a sterling silver hinged lid, fitted with a wonderful domed piece of period tortoise shell with stunning markings, colours ranging from golden champagne to rich chocolate brown; the patina is beautifully glossy. The inkwell chamber retains it's original glass liner. The silver is clearly hallmarked for the highly collectible Chester assay office and the year 1930; the makers mark is also present for the very prestigious silversmith Grey & Co. This firm was founded in London by William Grey in 1876 and from 1886 to 1936 was active under the name of Grey & Co. Grey & Co were noted for their novelties in silver and supplied retail establishments such as the top-notch Asprey & Co. (London). Superb condition, measuring 3" x 3" x 2 1/2" tall.
