Description

This charming piece of old pine furniture is a complete pine bedroom unit, featuring a full-height door on each side of a glazed door. Inside, there are two removable shelves above a stack of three drawers, each with brass cup handles. Each full-height door conceals four shelves, which can be removed if you prefer a hanging rail instead. The unit can be dismantled into a central 'box section' measuring 60" x 26" x 24". If this box section fits up your stairs, the rest will as well. I offer personal delivery and assembly services across most areas of the UK. Provide your postcode for a delivery quote. This piece is currently in bare wood and is available for £1000. If you prefer it waxed, the price is £1150. Both options include the fitting of hanging rails as needed. With an internal depth of 21.5", this unit offers ample hanging space for even the largest coats and suits. Overall dimensions: Height: 77.5", width: 54", depth: 25.5", internal depth: 21.5"
