Description

A lovely Art Deco sterling silver scent bottle with a beautiful guilloche enamel top. It has a hinged lid and its original ground stopper inside. It is excellent quality and the enamel top is a beautiful bright yellow. It is clearly hallmarked for London, 1923 and the maker Cohen & Charles. The top, body and base are all hallmarked. It is in very good condition for its age and there are no damages to the enamel. There are some minor signs of age and use on the silver and some light surface marks but nothing detrimental. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and overall it displays very well. Approximate Measurements: Width : 1" (2.5cm) Height : 2 3/4" (7cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
