The English landscape oil painting depicts a rural valley, with two people picking flowers / fruit in a hedgerow, whilst a third person, who is standing near a fence look on, set in front of rolling hills in the background. The artist has a good way of depicting the natural colours of the landscape and trees. The timing of the day is emphasised by the pink on the mountains and the darkness of the foreground. The artist is unknown as the painting is not signed, but it is extremely well painted. The English landscape oil ...
