Description

A very sweet art deco small silver / Christening cup of tapering form with stepped collet foot. Unusually and stylistically engraved with a Coronation procession including the Gold State Coach being led by members of the Household Cavalry. Hallmarked for London 1934, it was probably engraved a couple of years later for the Coronation of King George VI. Maker William Bruford & Son and marked for retailer Batty of Manchester. No other engraving, personalisation etc. It measures 7.3cm (2 7/8") high and 6.5cm (2 9/16") rim to rim, 8.5cm (3 3/8") rim to handle. It weighs 97g / 3.1ozt. In excellent condition with no damage or repair and light handling wear. The engraving and hallmarks are nice and clear.
