Description

Wonderful Edwardian rosewood corner cabinet in excellent condition of neat proportion. The two-tier top is decorated by inlaid corner shaped spandrels, turned spindles and well-turned finials. It has two rectangle bevelled edge mirrors that will reflect light beautifully onto the item displayed. The base has a two-door cupboard decorated with stylised marquetry and string inlay with a shelf above and below raised on square tapered legs. Like all antiques there are some imperfections however these only add to the charm and character of this outstanding piece of furniture. A fantastic cabinet of compact proportion with a great warm colour and amazing graining. A super period cabinet that will add style to any corner.
