Description

A very fine Stuart Period panel of 'King Charles II and his favourite Mistress' in the gardens of a Church / Castle. The bright colours of the raised stumpwork embroidery, and fine detail of the faces, bring to life this antique textile picture. The back of the picture frame is inscribed with a faded reference to the title of the work. circa 1680
Provenance : Comes with invoice showing purchase from Halcyon Days (London) Ltd in December 1980
