Description

We are delighted to offer this beautiful antique 18ct gold cameo in Roman revival style made ca. early 19th century. Distinctly antique and immediately distinguishing from modern pieces, this ring presents a lovely neo-classical design perfect for antique lovers and those who wish to express their passion for history, culture and antiquities. This ring is made in the manner of earlier Roman cameo/intaglio rings from the 2nd-4th century AD. The gold workmanship is wonderful with a decorative reeded shank with two scrolled lyre-shaped shoulders that is contrasted by a splendid single black cameo. The cameo features a portrait of a lady and is probably made from antique glass. The rich gold tone and black contrast creates a stunning look especially under natural sunlight and stands out as a unique piece even among other jewellery. Ideal to wear on its own as a conversation starter piece or creatively combined with other jewellery to accentuate your overall outfit and style. The ring is unmarked as is common with jewellery of this age/period and as such we have tested it, indicating 18ct+ gold. All of our jewellery comes with a complimentary hard shell gift box with a ve...
