Description

This 19thC Mahogany Whatnot With Drawer could be used in many areas of the home. Standing on turned feet with its original brass castors, the finely turned posts separate the four shelves. The piece is nicely topped off with turned finials and is finished all round so can be placed anywhere in a room. Benefitting from the inclusion of the free running drawer, to offer further storage away from prying eyes. Constructed from decent quality Mahogany, this piece has a good weight to it, aiding stability. Presented in good condition with a lovely patination, wearing its age with pride. This piece is both useful and elegant in design, enabling it to work in a wide variety of locations and décor. Circa 19thC Dimensions Width 21in/54cm Depth 17in/43cm Height 49in/124cm
