Description

This exquisite piece of furniture that graces us from the 18th century, is an oak Welsh dining table of unparalleled charm and elegance. Its resplendent top, crafted with three planks, boasts a remarkable thickness that is sure to captivate the eye. Resting upon a sturdy base, supported by tapered legs, this table stands a testament to the craftsmanship of days gone by. The table has a large end drawer, which adds a touch of practicality to its grandeur. Furthermore, the table's beautifully shaped apron, lovely crafted, adds a delightful flourish to its overall aesthetics.
