Description

A George III period, burr elm tripod supper table, dating from the last quarter C18th. A superb country table, featuring a well figured, solid burr elm top. Supported by a baluster stem, raised on a tripod of cabriole legs. An original, very rare, high quality table, in very good condition and ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 73 cm (28.75") tall, and the top is 68.5 cm (27") in diameter. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in a very good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally very sound and sturdy. Mostly original, other than a similar period replacement trigger clasp (early c.19th), and catch plate. Two of the feet have had repaired soles. There are some small timber fills in the gaps in the burr top, though these are likely original to the piece. Some old marks and blemishes on the top, now well polished in. There are a couple of pieces in the back, again probably original. A few historic and now extinct worm holes, namely tot he base and feet, now well polished in and do not affect the structure or sturdiness of the table in any way. Very good colour, lovely patina, w...
