Description

This is a truly exceptional dining table. Made from two thick solid planks of walnut for the top and a mixture of walnut and oak to form the base. The table is totally original and has plenty of character that its taken on from years of use. The design is classic and will sit well in a huge number of interiors. But the thing that gets me every time with this table is the figuring to the walnut top that gives the table a beautiful patina. There are also the original iron tenons visible in the top that show its construction attractively and embraces them as part of its design. Height 75cm Length 250cm Depth 90cm
