Description

A 19th Century French Oak Refectory Table. This is a Very Heavy Solid Oak Country Table, the wood for this table was reclaimed from a ship. A refectory table from Brittany, the top is made from 4, 3" thick planks. The table is a typically French style known over there as a Monastery table, the table legs are made from 10" diameter wood from the mast and still retains the iron rope rings. The table is a beautiful medium Oak Colour, the table is very sound and does not wobble, the top can be dismantled for ease of access, a superb slightly rustic piece and will stand up to no end of use. This is a very heavy piece. The table is 78" long, 30" wide, 30" high. CS201
