Description

An excellent decorative French terracotta life size bust depicting Queen Luise of Prussia sculpted initially by the Berlin sculptor Johann Gottfried Shadow (1764 - 1850). She is wearing a head scarf and showing a lace neckline mounted onto a suckle and displayed on a turned and moulded mahogany stand with an inset top to locate the terracotta bust. In all a very pleasing piece with a good size and presence. French, circa 1910. Queen Luise enjoyed enormous popularity in Prussia as a symbol of resistance to Napoleon, becoming a cult figure after she died in 1810. Size including mahogany stand height 64cm x width 33cm x depth 33cm
