Description

This is a beautiful antique Art Deco walnut display cabinet, circa 1930. The cabinet is unusual and very rare in shape being hexagonal, there are two side pillars that contain storage either side and support the central cabinet. This cabinet really does have the wow factor and is in an attractive mid tone figured walnut veneer with original bakelite handles to the side doors. Two internal glass shelves with a backdrop of patterned original material. The glazed central door opens effortlessly. The whole cabinet has been professionally and sympathetically restored and so comes to you in excellent condition. Lots of storage in this cabinet which makes it not only look great but very functional too, the epitome of the Deco.
