Description

Early Heals Edwardian Antique Oak Triple Wardrobe A super quality, solid oak triple wardrobe by Heals of London around 1910, a model that is rarely seen as only a handful of this design were ever made. Great size, being a triple wardrobe that features three long well panelled robe doors whist the wardrobe base has two large drawers with the original oak octagonal handles, a moulded waist above and standing on lovely Heals squashed acorn shaped bun feet. In excellent condition throughout, nice and clean inside, providing lots of storage with a large open hanging space with the original brass hanging rail and hanging hooks and behind the other robe door are two storage shelves with three, graduating fitted drawers beneath, all have the original brass handles. A rare Heals of London large-scale Edwardian antique oak bedroom storage piece that splits up for movement, the cornice lifts off, the robe section splits into 1/3rd and 2/3rd pods and then the base section with the drawers. Dimensions Height: 194cm (76.98") Width: 183cm (72.62") Depth: 56cm (22.22")
