A circular mahogany moulded tray, decorated with satinwood string inlay and a dentil gallery, secured by the original decorative brass handles, is located on a raised centre on top of the occasional table, ensuring it is locked in place and does not slide off. The occasional table, which is also decorated with similar string inlay detail, along with a fan shaped central marquetry motif, stands on four fine tapering splayed inlaid legs, which are united by a lower shelf. Ideal for use in the living or dining room, as it is both mul...
