Description

A charming early 20th-century Limed Oak Danish Sofa, exuding grace and style. The arched architectural pediment on the upper back features a central stylized plume of feathers, beautifully mirrored by the upholstered back and crest rail above. Supported by a sprung seat and large rounded arms, this sofa offers comfort and support. The front legs of the sofa showcase elegant decorative tops and a concave upper section, while the lower section boasts a slightly ovoid form. The end panels are tastefully upholstered in matching fabric and adorned with a decorative braiding, enhancing the overall appeal of this piece. The oak frame's grain is elegantly accentuated by a lime wax finish, elevating its visual appeal. Versatile and inviting, this sofa is equally suited for a lounge, bedroom, hallway, snug, or study, promising both comfort and aesthetic charm. Seat height is 45cm.
