Description

An early twentieth century Howard & Sons Ltd 'Bridgewater' armchair with a matching footstool. Currently traditionally upholstered in a green Howard & Sons monogram cotton fabric, with imperfections. Raised on square tapering legs, terminating in original brass castors. The armchair is fitted with a pure feather down cushion. Both the chair and stool are fully stamped to the legs and castors, also retaining their factory labels. Structurally and internally very good. We do offer a full range of upholstery services if this slightly distressed appearance is not to your taste.
