Description

Clockwise is delighted to present another fine eight day longcase clock having just enjoyed full and sympathetic restorations performed to the case, dial and movement. Dating from circa 1858, in lovely condition and standing an imposing 2.26m (7 feet 5 inches) tall, the flame mahogany case is surmounted by a hood with fretwork cresting and supporting three brass finials. Barleytwist spiral pillars with wooden capitals to top and bottom flank the masked hood door to the front. The trunk contains matching spiral barleytwist pillars flanking the geometric inlaid door which retains its working key and lock and the clock stands on matching ogee mahogany feet. Similar geometric inlay is to be found to the base. Reduced By £300 For Nov. Price Will Return To £3,150 On 1/12/24 The arched dial is signed 'William Meredith, Merthyr Tydvil' and is in gorgeous condition being a fine example of a painted dial with seconds sub-dial and working date window. The moonphase element depicts a small sailing ship and windmill with architectural paintings to each dial corner. The three matching pierced brass hands complete the impressive appearance. The four pillar, rack-striking anchor esca...
