Description

This is a fine antique pair of French Empire marble topped and ormolu mounted flame mahogany console tables, Circa 1840 in date. Each with a rectangular breche violette marble top over a frieze decorated with ormolu rosettes and palmette mounts on elegant tapering legs which feature a pair of finely cast ormolu female heads. The consoles are raised on shaped plinth bases. Of beautifully refined proportions and retaining excellent colour and patination. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 96 cm x Width 122 cm x Depth 43 cm. Dimensions in inches: Height 3 foot, 2 inches x Width 4 foot x Depth 1 foot, 5 inches. Empire style, is an early-19th-century design movement in architecture, furniture, other decorative arts, and the visual arts followed in Europe and America until around 1830. The style originated in and takes its name from the rule of Napoleon I in the First French Empire, where it was intended to idealize Napoleon's leadership and the French state. The style corresponds to the Biedermeier style in the German-speaking lands,...
