Description

This superbly carved Black Forest bear nutcracker is a fine example carved with great skill and offering superb detail to the bear's features and fur. The eyes have been inset in dark brown glass which gives a very realistic look. The mouth opens to reveal his tongue and teeth. These pieces were made as tourist mementoes and used for cracking small nuts such as hazel. The grip handles are also designed as a stand which aids the display of this item. Circa 1900 Height 18cm x width 5.5cm x depth 8cm
