Description

A good quality pair of silver napkin rings in their original fitted case. They are both individually hallmarked for Sheffield, 1940 and the maker Viners Ltd. The total weight of silver is 68g. They are both in very good condition. There are some minor signs of age and use and a few faint surface marks but nothing detrimental. They have been lightly cleaned and polished and are ready for use. The box is good quality with a silk lining and fitted velvet base. The retailer's name "James Carr, Gold & Silversmith, Aberdeen" is printed under the lid. The interior is clean and tidy. There are some small scuffs and minor losses around the outside but nothing major and it displays well.
