Description

This is an antique mortar and pestle duo. An English, polished brass apothecary dish or decorative jardiniere pot, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800. Dashing Georgian mortars with fine display appeal. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in original order. Quality brass presenting golden tonality, with lightly aged interiors. Decorated with engraved concentric bands to the main body. Could be useful as distinctive small jardiniere pots. This is an attractive antique mortar and pestle duo, with an appealing lightly time worn finish. Delivered ready to display.
