Description

Outstanding Victorian Aesthetic Movement Thuya & Ebony Ladies Writing Table. An incredibly rare and wonderfully ornate piece. We are delighted to bring to you this truly fantastic and very rare English Victorian Aesthetic Movement Ladies writing side table made around C1880. This stunning table has been sympathetically restored by ourselves in our workshop to the upmost standard. The tables top unusually features the most beautiful burr Thuya wood which is contrasted by its Ebony frame embellished with a gold carved relief and Boxwood Inlays. The table conceals a fully fitted interior below its beautiful top which unlocks via its original lock and ornate brass escutcheon, allowing the top to lift up. Lifting the top to reveals its original royal blue gold tooled writing desk leather in fantastic condition which can be used flat or lifted to an angle for reading or writing. Beside the writing surface are organised compartments for stationary and ink pots complete with its original silver topped glass ink pot. The table also features a lovely slim dovetail constructed drawer in the frieze which is framed by burr Thuya with Ebony and gold relief swags and tail carvings t...
