

SA1081484

Three Oriental Carved Wooden Figures Of Shubunkin, 19th Century

Price

GBP 475

| USD $642 | EUR 556

Item Reference: SA1081484

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A school of three charming Shubunkin, each meticulously carved from wood. Originating from the Orient in the 19th Century, these figures showcase the intricate craftsmanship of the period. The figures are graduated in size, creating a harmonious aesthetic when displayed together. Each Shubunkin figure is distinct, carved with attention to detail that brings the wooden figures to life. The figures are further enhanced with glass eyes, adding a touch of realism and a captivating sparkle. The provenance of these figures is as noteworthy as the figures themselves. They hail from Newbold Pacey Hall, a historic estate located in Warwickshire. This adds a layer of historical significance and intrigue to the pieces, making them not just beautiful objects of art, but also carriers of a rich heritage. These Shubunkin figures, with their detailed carving, historical provenance, and charming design, are more than just decorative items. They are a testament to the artistry of the past and would make a valuable addition to any collection. Large: 6 1/4 inches (16 cm) Medium: 4 inches (10 cm) Small: 3 1/4 inches (8 cm)

Internal Ref: SA164

Seller Details

Surrey Antiques by Gary J Hall

Unit 7A Pankhurst Farm Bagshot Road West End Surrey United Kingdom

Tel: 07711 846 712 or 01276 856 799

International Tel: +44 7711 846 712 or +44 1276 856 799

