Description

A fine George III mahogany dumb waiter. The piece stands on a tripod base with slipper feet, original castors, and elegantly shaped legs. The central columns all have repeat matching turned balusters and each tier is beautifully shaped with a fine moulded edge. The whole is wonderfully dense quality mahogany with a great untouched colour and patina. The waiter is in excellent condition with each tier rotating easily. A fine example of this type of Georgian furniture with a great period look. C.1780. 23 wide 42 ½ high 23 deep
