Description

A beautiful Norwegian solid sterling silver and enamel dish. It is hallmarked 925 along with the makers mark of Kristian M Hestenes of Bergen. I would date it to c1930. It has been superbly designed with the bowl being enamelled depicting a landscape scene possibly the Midnight Sun. It is in superb condition being free from dings splits chips cracks and repairs. It measures approx. 3 inches (7.6cm) across by 0.5cm (1.2cm) tall and weighs 60 grams. A superbly made very high-quality piece. (new box included).
