Description

One of the best Nathaniel Mills snuff boxes I have seen or owned. The cast top is of Newstead Abbey and Mills made this in Birmingham in 1835. Newstead was formerly an Augustinian Priory built around 1170. Following the dissolution of the Monasteries in 1536 it was converted into a domestic home best known as the ancestral home of Lord Byron (1788-1824). The interior of this box is fully gilded with hallmarks in the top and bottom. The box has cut away corners and the castings are as crisp as the day it was made. It's in exceptional condition, the 17 part hinge closes tightly and the top fits perfectly. An amazing box for any collection. WEIGHT; 154 grams or 5 ozst approximately. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
