Description

This is an antique Chinoiserie crumb tray. A Japanese, lacquered papier-mâché decorative hand tool, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Delightful example of Chinoiserie with ornate decorative appeal. Displays a desirable aged patina with lightly time-worn appearance. Crafted from papier-mâché and lacquered with the distinctive black finish. Fan-shaped scallop forms with inset finger hole. Yellow and amber decor with figures and delicate tree and foliage. This is a wonderful antique Chinoiserie crumb tray, blessed with decorative appeal and a charming example of its type. Delivered ready to display.
