Description

A fine example of a Georgian mahogany tilt top table. The top is a single piece of Cuban mahogany. The base has a baluster stem with wythen turning, it stands on finely shaped legs. The whole has the most wonderful colour and patina, particularly the top. The table is in good untouched antique condition with a historic repair to the underside on the top bracing a crack in the timber. The table is a great example in this piece of period furniture, with a great look and superb patina. C.1780. Overall sizes in inches: 32 ¼ by 32 ¾ wide 28 ¼ high
