Description

Presenting a pair of Victorian Gothic brass candlesticks, dating back to the year 1870. These candlesticks are a testament to the exquisite craftsmanship of the Victorian era. The pair is well-proportioned, boasting a harmonious balance between their height and width. The candlesticks are crafted from high-quality brass, known for its durability and timeless appeal. The rims of the candlesticks are adorned with intricately pierced fleur-de-lys patterns, a classic symbol of the Gothic style. This detail not only enhances the aesthetic appeal but also allows for a captivating play of light when the candles are lit. The stems of the candlesticks are elegantly turned, a design choice that adds a touch of sophistication and provides a comfortable grip when moving the candlesticks. Adding to the uniqueness of these candlesticks are the lion paw feet. These raised feet, meticulously shaped to resemble the powerful paws of a lion, provide stability to the candlesticks and prevent them from tipping over. In conclusion, this pair of Victorian Gothic brass candlesticks, with their intricate details and superior craftsmanship, are more than just functional objects. They are a pi...
