Description

Edwardian inlaid mahogany desk This Edwardian inlaid mahogany desk was made circa 1900. The red inset and gilt tooled writing surface have satinwood banding in the mahogany top that runs around the border. It has a wide drawer above the kneehole and then the 4 graduated bow fronted drawers to each side, that finish above the elegant square tapering legs that have box wood stringing. Imagine this most elegant Edwardian desk in your home, and the pleasure it will give you as you sit at it to do your work.
