

SA1082174

Pair of antique porcelain
figurines, Dresden,
Potschappel, early 20th century

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA1082174

Date of manufacture: 1910

Description

Pair of antique Dresden porcelain figurines of the flower seller and her admirer. Figure of a flower girl in soft-paste porcelain painted in enamels and gold-trimmed. She is holding a tray with flowers and a basket under her armpit, there's a rose flower in her right hand. The palette of flower colors is amazing. The figure of a young man made in classical manner. He dressed in a floral waistcoat and breeches and in a long jacket in light cobalt color. He holds an open box with candy and gives the girl a treat. Figurines rich enameled and decorated with gild. On the base Dresden Porcelain trademark blue "SP Dresden" and impressed pattern numbers which confirm the authenticity. The figurines painted in polychrome and eye-catching fashion. These pieces were made by Carl Thieme Saxonian porcelain factory, generally known in English as Dresden Porcelain, it was located in Potschappel. Carl-Johann Gottlob Thieme started in 1864 in Dresden porcelain and antique shop. He was also running a porcelain painting business. In September 1872 he established a porcelain factory named Sächsische Porzellan-Fabrik Carl Thieme zu Potschappel. The flower modeler Carl August Kuntzsch, a son-i...

Seller Details

Gillers Antiques Ltd

Buckland House Buntingford Hertfordshire SG9 OPY United Kingdom

Tel: 07738 009924

International Tel: +44 7738 009924

