Description

A decorative antique pair of early 19th century Masons Patent Ironstone China desert dishes in the rare 'leaves and wheels' pattern, painted in an Imari palette with gilded highlights. It has taken me a while to find out the name of this pattern, as it is not one that is seen very often. It is similar to the more common 'Japan Basket' pattern, but more intricate. The plates are hand decorated and the pattern varies slightly between them. These beautiful dishes would have been used as desert plates, and have a deep moulded shell like shape. For sale as a pair. Condition: No chips, cracks, damage or restoration to either plate, but the gold gliding is a worn on both where they have been handled. Please note the dimensions given are approximate as the sizes vary ever so slightly between the plates. Free UK delivery - the item will be sent using a tracked and signed for service.
