Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

This 19th century snuff box is full of surprises. First the lid on one side slides outwards to reveal a motto 'You're a tricky chap - take a pinch of snuff then find the little stiffun'. The next section slides down and off to reveal a small ebony coffin, the drawer on the side of this smaller coffin, pulls out to reveal a figural wooden man with moving parts. To access the snuff turn the snuff box up the other way and the swivel sideways. The snuff box measures 8cm l x 2.7cm h.
