Description

A superb example of a silver mounted Whisky tot, complimented with a silver Whiskey label. This handsome example dates to 1920 and has a stylish Art Deco look. The conical glass body is larger than usual and the applied handle is delightfully angular in shape. The base is finished with a multi point cut star and the stopper is hollow blown. The hallmarked silver neck has a wide pouring lip for ease of use. The associated label is of kidney shape and supported on a belcher style chain. Hallmarked to the rear and engraved to the front with 'Whiskey' spelt the Irish way, it completes the Tot, making for a fantastic ready to go gift. Dimensions below. Postage and Packing :- £10.00 UK. £18.00 Europe £26.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no chips or cracks to the glass and no dents or splits to the silver. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Maker :- Hukin & Heath. Date :- Birmingham 1920. Label :- London 1916. Hukin & Heath. Base diameter :- 9.3 cms. Height :- 12.5 cms. (to top of stopper).
