

SA1083211

An 18th Century Worcester
Reeded Trio Possibly Painted in the James Giles Atelier c.1780

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1083211*Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Dimensions

Width = 13.7 cm (5.4")

Description

A superb 18th century Worcester reeded trio, comprising a cup, teabowl and saucer. This was probably painted in the James Giles Atelier. It is in a neo classical design in black and gilt and is decorated with flower heads within garlands and swags. It is in very good condition with no restoration or damage. The saucer measures 13.7 in diameter. Provenance: From a Private Collection. A great addition to any collection.

Internal Ref: BKE

Seller Details

Gill Coe Antiques & Interiors

Dorking Surrey United Kingdom

Tel: 07860 158 955

International Tel: 07860 158 955

