Description

A large heavyweight aluminium Vintage sign with the Salvation Army motto 'Blood & Fire'. Cast in high relief and painted in blue and red. The Salvation Army's motto "Blood and Fire" has a deep and symbolic meaning within the organization and symbolizes the two central aspects of the Salvation Army's mission. Blood represents the blood of Christ shed for the redemption of humanity and Fire symbolizes the fire of the Holy Spirit and represents the commitment of the Salvation Army to bring hope, love, and practical assistance to those in need. This sign would have originally been mounted on the outside of a building. 111cm high, 83cm wide.
