Description

A lovely oak pot cupboard with an attractive white marble top. It likely originates from France and dates from the early 20th Century. It has a small drawer above a cupboard door and stands on elegant cabriole legs. It is a good quality piece with nicely carved details and a serpentine front on the marble top. It is in good condition for its age and has a lovely patina. There are minor signs of age and use, a few small marks and knocks and an old shrinkage split in the back panel but nothing detrimental and overall it displays well. The marble is in good condition and it is strong and sturdy. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use.
