Description

This charming oil painting showcases a delightful still life of vibrant buddleias arranged in a classic terracotta pot. The artist's masterful use of impasto technique brings the composition to life with rich textures and vivid colours. Measuring approximately 70cm x 50cm unframed, this piece radiates timeless appeal. Indistinctly monogrammed lower left. The painting exhibits wear consistent with its age, including some rippling, cracking, and minor paint loss, which we believe enhances its vintage charm. This lovely decorative French artwork is perfect for adding a ray of sunshine and elegance to any space it graces. More photos or videos available on request.
