Description

Victorian walnut circular dining table This Victorian walnut circular dining table was made circa 1870. The dining table with a circular top with the figured walnut top. It stands on the solid walnut base with the egg moulded double collar, and the 3 solid walnut cabriole legs with concealed brass castors under. A table of this quality could only have been afforded by the wealthy professionals or upper middle classes. The owner would have purchased this table as a centrepiece and to reflect his success to his family and friends when visiting. The Victorian walnut circular dining table is a lovely golden walnut colour and has most of its original polish and patina. We only had to gently and sympathetically bring it to its former glory. It is now ready to look superb in your home. Dimensions 137cms diameter 54ins 71.5cms high 28 1/4ins Delivery UK mainland FREE Other destinations please contact us, and we will get a quote.
