Description

A gorgeous Victorian silver and agate brooch, made in Scotland around 1880. It is formed by two interlinking circles signifying the eternal or romantic bond between two people, a great reason for giving it as a gift. Each silver circle has six hand cut Montrose gray agates and the silver is exquisitely engraved. It has a long pin which fits into a "C" style clasp, there also is a safety chain with a safety pin. A very collectable item and would make a wonderful gift. WEIGHT; 32 grams Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
