Description

Stunning pair of highly decorative 19th century green lacquered lamps. Dating from the early 19th century these were originally candlesticks, later converted to lamps and are Dutch in origin. There is some minor flaking to them but basically they are in very good condition, all the original finish with no touching up. The electrics have been fully re-furnished and they have been pat tested. They come with gold braided wire of a good length. SIZE; 6 1/2" diameter bases. 19 1/2" tall CIRCA; 1840
